

OpenAIRE National Workshop

Implementing Open Access and Open Science in Romania

22nd of October, 2018, Bucharest, Romania

SNSPA, 30A Expozitiei Boulevard, 8th floor, room 804

- 09:00-09:30 Registration of participants & welcome coffee
- 09:30-09:45 Welcome and introduction – UEFISCDI management representative
- 09:45-10:15 The vision of the European Commission: policy and practice for Open Science and Open Access
Alina Irimia, Romania NOAD Representatives, UEFISCDI
- 10:15-10:45 Open Access, Open Science and how does OpenAIRE help achieving the two
*Services, facilities and benefits for researchers, funders and data providers
Iryna Kuchma, Open Access Program Manager for EIFL and OpenAIRE
Coordinator of the East Region*
- 10:45-11:15 Coffee break
- 11:15-11:35 Open Science Communities – Romania’s Initiatives
BrainMap & ERRIS – examples of collaboration in science, Ioana Spanache, PhD, UEFISCDI
- 11:35-12:00 EOSC Hub – a single contact point for European researchers and innovators
Mihnea Dulea, PhD, representative of EGI in Romania (IFIN-HH)
- 12:00-12:30 Demonstration of OpenAIRE tools
*Followed by Q&A on how the services work and their usefulness to participants
Iryna Kuchma, Open Access Program Manager for EIFL and OpenAIRE
Coordinator of the East Region*

12:30-13:30 Networking lunch

13:30-14:00 Romanian Open Access Publications

Victor Velter, PhD, Head of Scientometrics Office, UEFISCDI

14:00-14:30 Implementing Open Access and Open Science in Romania - Summing up the day and consultation regarding potential future events

Outreach and dissemination; Training and support; National policy and research infrastructure – working with funders